

Motivational Lecture Programme – Autumn 2006

The Learning Community Services Motivational Lecture Programme has been running in partnership with Newham schools and the University of East London successfully for many years. Speakers have included: Lawyer Imran Khan, Bollywood's Honey Kalaria, World Champion hurdler Tony Jarrett. The programme aims to:

- Provide a source of inspiration for young people
- Engage them to take a greater role in the management of their own learning
- Motivate them to work towards achieving personal goals in the future

This Autumn inspiring individuals will present the lectures from a wide range of arts related fields to cater for the varied interest of the students. There will be six lectures during October and November this year to be held at the University of East London's Docklands Campus with the following speakers on the following dates:

Date	Speaker	Details
05.10.06	Patricia Elcock	Comedy Writer for TV shows such as Desmond's and Kerching! Also bringing young actor from Kerching! Formally from St Bonaventure's school
12.10.06	Shara Brice	Director of championship and award winning cheer leaders Ascension Eagles, based at Royal Docks School Also bringing cheerleaders
19.10.06	Millie Guest	Freelance Website Designer for music labels such as Virgin and EMI
