

My & Our Truths All About Co-Production

In every room where plans are made, with futures form and paths are laid, a chair stands waiting, strong and true, a chair that must be for me and you.

For every barrier you've climbed, has sharpened insight in your mind. You know the gaps, the cracks, the strain. You know where systems cause the pain, that's why your voice must lead the way. Not judged, not silenced, not on display But valued as a guiding light, to build what's fair, just and right.

Co-Production means we stand as one. Side-by-side until it's done. Not other's trying to speak for you, but with you here your wisdom stronger every single year.

Co-pro starts with me and you, a real respect and promise working true. Standing in respect a promise working bliss, with the thoughts of memories, lived experience no risk. So systems hear us, we stand aloud. We know what we need, We are so proud. We're thankful now co-production is equal footing and true. We do what only it is. You Co-Pro can do.

Give us a voice let's make our stand, in our uniqueness so tall and grand. Every colour, every need and sphere, even one can stand tall when we're there. I know this may sound like a dream come true, that's why coproduction we truly love you.

So let's make a Real, lasting difference, let's make a new sound. Let's shake the Earth and change the ground . Our form of thinking, our knowledge, our new sound. Let's not strive, let's opt to Always thrive. It's in our reach, that sound Co-production it's your charm, our extended true niche.

Co-Production we send you a kiss and thank you evermore, for this true eternal bliss, Lets make the difference, make the change sound. And truly, really definitely rock this systemic folly ground.

Co-Production = With us and NEVER without us!!!!

By Marcus Morgan-Valentine
Newham Resident