-  Academy schools are state-funded schools and independent of local authority control. Free schools are a type of academy, these are state funded and non profit making.
-  Maintained schools are state funded schools controlled by the local authority (council).
-  Foundation schools are state-funded maintained schools where the Governing Body is overseen by a charitable Trust or Foundation
-  Voluntary aided schools are state-funded schools in which a foundation or trust (usually a religious organisation), contributes to building costs and has a substantial influence in the running of the school.
