EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY

We are committed to and champion equality and diversity in all aspects of employment within the London Borough of Newham. All employees are expected to understand and promote our Equality and Diversity Policy in the course of their work.

PROTECTING OUR EMPLOYEES AND SERVICES

Adherence to Health and Safety requirements and proper risk management is required from all employees in so far as is relevant to their role. All employees are expected to understand and promote good Health and Safety practices and manage risks appropriately.

COMMITMENT TO AND UNDERSTANDING OF NEWHAM VALUES

Honesty – We act with integrity; we communicate openly and transparently; we take responsibility if things go wrong

Equality – we treat people fairly and consistently; we include everyone in our diverse community; we stand up to injustice and discrimination

Ambition – we work hard to make Newham better for everyone; we think creatively to find new solutions; we are committed to learning and improving

Respect – We treat people with courtesy and compassion; we welcome other people's ideas and perspectives; we consider how our behaviours impact on others

Together – We are one council, one team; we collaborate and co-produce to achieve results; we trust, appreciate and constructively challenge each other

COMMITMENT TO PERSONAL LEARNING

To successfully complete the Apprenticeship, not only must the apprentice meet the performance standards required, but individuals must also meet the off-the job learning requirements.

Responsibilities include:

- learning and developing practical skills,
- participating in classes and workshops on and offsite,
- observing all employee processes and procedures,
- completing tests and assignments
- delivering presentations to colleagues and other stakeholders.

You should be well-organised, flexible, and willing to assist wherever possible

Overall Purpose of Job

To assist with the provision of a professional, quality service throughout the Council.

Job Context

1. The job title of Newham Apprentice applies to all of the apprentices hired as part of the Newham Apprenticeship Scheme. Each apprentice will be a member of a specific functional team, although they will be expected to work in a flexible manner and carry out appropriate work in other teams when necessary to meet service objectives.
2. To be successful as an Apprentice, you must have great time management skills and be willing to fit into the existing team structure. You must demonstrate the council's values and behaviours in all that you do. Outstanding Apprentices are those who respond well to criticism, build good relationships with colleagues, and ultimately make a positive lasting impression.
3. You will report to a relevant Supervisor/manager.
4. You will have no direct management responsibility.

Key Tasks and Accountabilities

1. Key tasks and accountabilities are intended to be a guide to the range and level of work expected of the post holder. This is not an exhaustive list of all tasks that may be given to the post holder. The employee will be expected to carry out technical and administrative support and other reasonable duties which may be required from time to time.
2. To make the best use of appropriate ICT systems including the Council's internet and intranet, email and other systems in order to provide an efficient and effective service.
3. To ensure work is completed in accordance with agreed timescales, targets and service standards.
4. Prepare routine and standard correspondence on a range of issues, making amendments as appropriate to the individual circumstances.
5. To enter and maintain appropriate records onto the relevant systems, assisting with the production of statistics and management information as required.
6. To assist service users, staff and other agencies with general enquiries, both by telephone and in person.
7. To maintain excellent customer service in all areas of work.
8. To maintain high levels of sensitivity in relation to personal, confidential and sensitive issues.
9. To provide cover for other appropriate staff at the place of work.
10. To assist in preparation and despatch of agendas, minutes and other documents as necessary.

11. To administer a range of procedures relating to the appropriate functional team. Examples of such work include:

- Dealing with general enquiries.
- Processing bookings
- Preparing amendments/variations to documents.
- Maintaining secure and accurate records.
- Process documentation to meet deadlines.
- Process records; monitor input on the corporate systems to ensure information is kept up to date.
- Collation, reporting and basic analysis of management information.
- To take minutes of meetings as appropriate.

12. In addition to meeting the performance requirements of the role, the apprentice is required to have good time management, analytical thinking, and good interpersonal skills; have excellent problem-solving and troubleshooting abilities; and demonstrate a growth mind-set and passion for learning. They will be required to spend 20% of their time off the job learning. This includes, but is not confined to:

- Attending classes/training modules as required by the Training provider, and participating in as many learning opportunities as possible.
- Assisting within (the relevant team and/or department), and also learning about other aspects of the Service.
- Observing the council's health and safety procedures.
- Completing all mandatory tests, presentations, and other required evaluations within timescales set by the Training provider.
- Working in the office and travelling to other sites when required.
- Positively receiving feedback and ensuring the line manager is kept updated on progress.
- Attending meetings and offering suggestions for improvement.
- Maintaining records, both on-line and where appropriate off-line, of everything learned.
- Building professional relationships with colleagues, talent Hub representatives and service users.
